Bar
amirut

Bar Amrut
“THE NECTAR OF THE GODS “

The Bar Amrut is open every day from 7 am – 11 pm.

This delightful bar facing onto the restaurant is as in the old caravanserai’s where hospitality originated an oasis of calm relaxed enjoyment. AMRUT derives its name from Sanskrit meaning the Nectar of the Gods.

The Bar Amrut will feature a variety of single malts, heritage gins, fine wines, cooling ales and beers as well as alcoholic and non alcoholic signature cocktails. Our Lanna inspired bar snacks are served to acquaint travellers and guests with the tastes and feelings of the ancient Lanna Kingdom.

Our amazing Chiang Rai coffee in dark and medium roasts served chilled, hot and with special ingredients are ideal for that early morning recharge.

Bar Amrut has been curated in this 145-year-old Thai House with a timeless yet engaging spirit – a venue where the day’s tales and adventures are reflected upon in creating delicious and inspirational cocktails.

Join us at Bar Amrut and embark on a journey where flavors, ambiance, and aesthetics harmonize to create an exceptional sensory adventure.

The Ambalama At Visama

A very special experience for our guests are special evenings at the Ambalama – The Ambalama is a venue for guests and travelers to gather and socialize. In ancient times guests would meet around a fireplace exchange ideas, debate and indulge in lively conversations often leading to lifelong memories and friendships.

In various parts of Asia the Ambalama as a gathering place has existed for a very long time – in Sri Lanka for example Ambalamas built 2000 years ago can still be found. In Thailand we refer to these spaces as Salas the only difference being the Ambalama is open air around a fireplace.

The Ambalama at Visama is a special venue for Cinema Paradiso Evenings – for screenings of great movies under the starlit skies of Mae Chan. Every week our Tented Camp Team host an evening to welcome our guests and friends. For special events from weddings to parties in the open countryside nothing beats an evening in the Ambalama at Visama.

Our Visama Daily News bulletin will highlight these events and our Tented Camp Team will be sure you are abreast of events.

For reservations please contact our Event Butler at the Reception area in the Bar Amrut.

External Experiences

What to do and see when in Chiang Rai – the Lanna Kingdom of Thailand

Black House Chiang Rai

Baan Dam Museum, also known to foreigners as the Black House Museum, is a private art museum comprising a mixture of traditional northern Thai buildings with unconventional and contemporary architecture, designed by Thawan Duchanee.

Doi Tung

Doi Tung Royal Villa, formerly Princess Mother Srinagarindra's summer home, is now a museum displaying her work. Nearby, the Mae Fah Luang Gardens feature plants among rock formations. Princess Mother's efforts led to reforestation and the end of the opium trade, encouraging local tribes to cultivate alternative crops.

Visama Spa Excursion

The Visama Spa Excursion invites you to experience Thailand's age-old massage tradition, a holistic approach to body and soul renewal. Our expert practitioners combine ancient wisdom with modern luxury, offering a range of treatments to cater to your unique needs.

House of Opium Museum

The Hall of Opium Museum offers an interactive learning experience about opium, covering its history and impact in the Golden Triangle. It features various zones, making the learning process engaging.

Chef's Tailor made Market visits in Mae Chan

A delightful exploration of Northern Thai cuisine. Led by our chef at Reu Doo Gaan Eatery, these market tours introduce you to the vibrant local ingredients and flavors. You'll interact with vendors, discover traditional techniques, and gain a deeper understanding of this regional culinary treasure.

Chiang Saen

Chiang Saen, established between 1327 and 1329, held a pivotal position in Northern Thailand's history until its demise in 1804. It served as a crucial border post for the Lanna Kingdom and emerged as a significant center of Buddhism. During the years spanning from approximately 1558 to 1804, it found itself under Burmese rule intermittently.

Jade Markets at Myanmar - Thailand Border

Discover the allure of jade at the Myanmar-Thailand border's vibrant Jade Markets. Explore a wide range of jade gemstones, engage with local artisans, and immerse yourself in the local culture. Your visit supports ethical practices, ensuring the well-being of communities and the environment while experiencing the beauty and heritage of jade.

Northern Hill Tribe Communities

Located some 15 kilometres along Doi Mae Salong Road, aids and administers local hilltribe settlements. Hilltribe handicrafts, including woven cloth and silverware, are available for purchase.
